

KCHMM Member Companies

Sponsor Responsible Hazardous Materials Management in Our Local Community!

When a company invests in KCHMM, it is investing in responsible hazmat management. Member companies sponsor the education and professional development of local environmental managers. Member companies support the growth of our local EHS community. Member companies provide resources that enable our members to promote sustainability and reduced environmental impacts. Member companies help KCHMM help its members to keep our facilities' collective workforce and our worksites' neighbors healthy and safe. Member companies sponsor KCHMM in implementing its Mission Statement:

Mission Statement

The purposes of the KCHMM Chapter are:

- To collectively represent and to safeguard the common interests of the members of the hazardous materials management profession;
- To cultivate, promote and sustain the profession of hazardous materials management;
- To elevate and maintain the professional character and education of hazardous materials managers;
- To contribute toward the protection of human health and of the environment; and,
- To facilitate the exchange of ideas to improve administration of hazardous materials management programs.

How to become a KCHMM Member Company

1. Send a contribution to Kentuckiana Chapter of Hazardous Materials Managers. See generic invoice on reverse. Mail payment by check or money order to KCHMM, P.O. Box 18009, Louisville, KY 40261-0009. You may also email a copy of this form and send an online payment to Treasurer@KCHMM.org via PayPal. If using PayPal, please add a $2 service fee to your payment.
2. If your contribution is $200 or more we will place your logo and company name on our website. Additionally, your company name will be included in our meeting power point presentation. Send your logo and website link to: webmaster@KCHMM.org.
3. Sponsorships are good for one calendar year. We are currently accepting sponsors for 2018.

Thank you for your consideration. We appreciate your support!
